

GOOD GOVERNANCE RANKING

15 states score below the national average on the governance rankings. The list of poor performers includes all the eight northeastern states along with Delhi, Jharkhand, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and Odisha

The ranking is based on the performance of states in 10 key sectors which have over 100 indicators. It draws from the Centre's Good Governance Index and the Composite Water Management Index and is based on government data available in the public domain. All the sectors have been given equal weightage

Indicators with weightage

10 Agriculture and Allied	10 Commerce & Industries
10 Human Resource Development	10 Water Resources Management
10 Public Infrastructure	10 Economic Governance
10 Social Welfare Development	10 Judicial & Public Security
10 Environment	10 Public Health

Sources: Good Governance Index and Composite Water Management Index

AGRICULTURE AND ALLIED SECTORS

13 states score below the national average in the sector. The list of poor performers includes five northeastern states along with Delhi, Telangana, Goa, Kerala and Punjab

States Northeastern states

Ranking

This ranking encompasses agriculture, horticulture, livestock and fisheries. India is second largest agricultural producer and contributes 7.68% of the total agricultural output of the world. It contributes about 17.32% of India's gross value added. More than two-thirds of country's population reside in rural areas of which about 58 per cent depend on agriculture as their major livelihood. India's food processing sector accounts for about 32 per cent of the food market. Given the importance, the government is working towards ensuring doubling farmers income by 2022

Indicators with Weightage

4 Growth Rate of Agriculture and Allied Sector

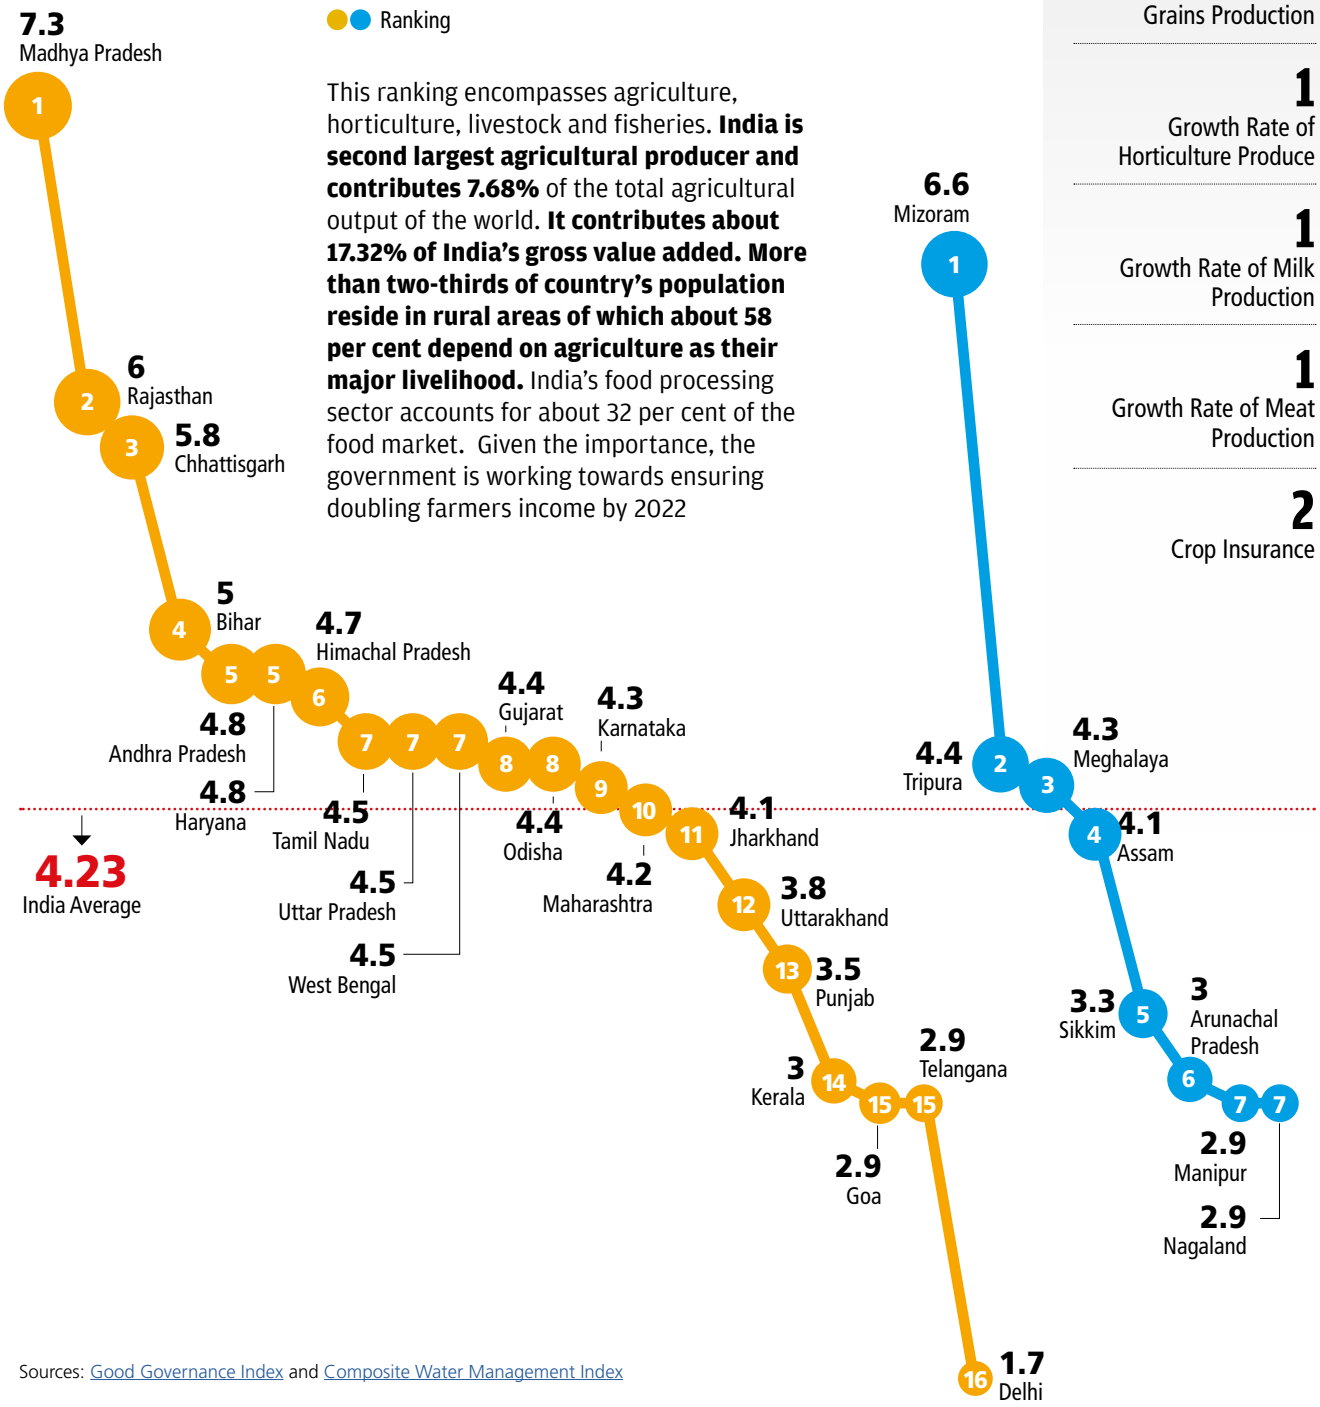

1 Growth Rate of Food Grains Production

1 Growth Rate of Horticulture Produce

1 Growth Rate of Milk Production

1 Growth Rate of Meat Production

2 Crop Insurance

Sources: Good Governance Index and Composite Water Management Index

COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

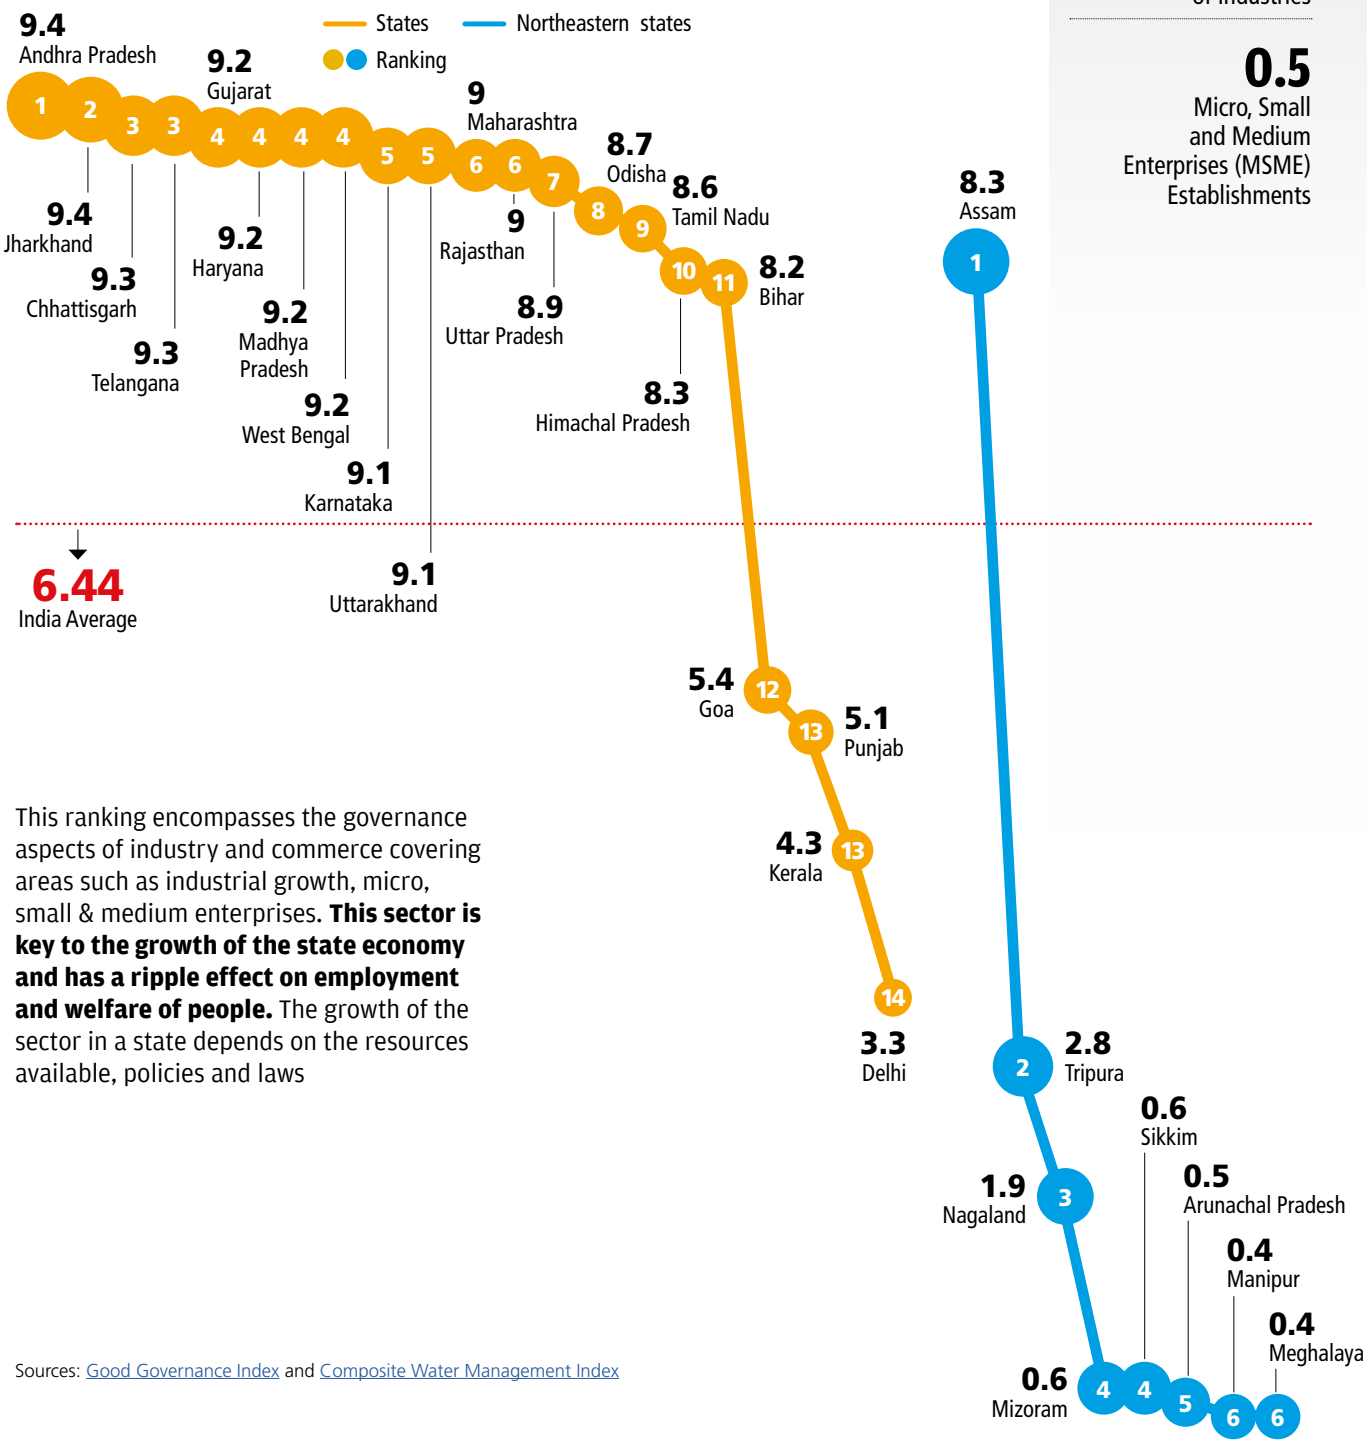

11 states score below the national average on the governance rankings. The list of poor performers includes seven northeastern states along with Delhi, Kerala, Punjab and Goa

Indicators with weightage

9
Ease-of-Doing-Business

0.5
Growth Rate of Industries

0.5
Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) Establishments

This ranking encompasses the governance aspects of industry and commerce covering areas such as industrial growth, micro, small & medium enterprises. This sector is key to the growth of the state economy and has a ripple effect on employment and welfare of people. The growth of the sector in a state depends on the resources available, policies and laws

Sources: Good Governance Index and Composite Water Management Index