

CSE-DTE BOOKS

Centre for Science and Environment (CSE), founded in 1980, is a public interest research and advocacy organisation based in New Delhi. CSE researches into, lobbies for and communicates the urgency of development that is both sustainable and equitable.

DownToEarth

Down To Earth (DTE) is a fortnightly on politics of environment and development. In its 33rd year of publication, it continues to adhere to its founder Anil Agarwal's objective of bringing out news, perspectives and knowledge to prepare citizens to change the world.

The designations of individuals mentioned in the book are what they were at the time of the original reports.
