

A mango tree in love with a little girl, a huge pit which swallows cows, a goddess who steals honey, a weeping snowman, a talking mobile phone and many more such characters. Let these magical stories from the Gobar Times stable take you away on a journey full of thrills and chills. What happens when a big black crow gets menacingly close to a little boy, or a new road threatens to end the friendship between a leopard and his friends in the village, or a baby is trapped under the roof while a raging flood has submerged three-storeyed buildings? Read to find more.
